Supplement to the Futures Client Agreement:

Clause	Amended Content	Implementation Date
Sch 3 – 17	You must carefully consider whether the risks set out below, along with all other applicable risks, are acceptable to the Customer, and the Customer must comply with all related regulations, including the trading restrictions on Customers from jurisdictions that prohibit any transactions involving virtual assets related products, prior to any transaction. You should seek independent professional advice before making any investment decision.	3/9/2025
Sch 3 – 17(vii)	Virtual assets/VA may not confer the same level of legal rights and ownership rights as conferred through ownership of a traditional asset. Also, ownership of them may be difficult to be verified.  Virtual assets/VA may or may not be considered “property” under Hong Kong law or laws of overseas jurisdictions, which may affect the nature and enforceability of the interest of investors in such virtual assets/VA.	3/9/2025
